

TWO TEARS IN A BUCKET

Dragged from the gutter, soaked in moonshine and rooted in tradition.

A repertoire of original songs and unique interpretations of traditional blues and roots tunes.

- • Dobro wielding Street punk meets Blues Mama from a goat farm ...What could possibly go wrong...
- With enough respect for the blues and roots tradition to carry the torch for the genre and enough disrespect for the tradition to rip it a new one, you won't regret hearing and seeing this dynamic Australian act as they deliver solid grooves and inspiring original lyrics.
- . In 2017 they recorded their "Debut EP" . In 2018 they played Bendigo Blues and Roots Festival and toured extensively. 2019 they played Mitchell Creek Rock and Blues Festival and Blues on Broadbeach and Airlie Beach Festival of Music to rave audience reviews.
- Nathan Petersen is a journeyman songwriter. His street kid punk roots blend with his respect and understanding of traditional blues and roots. An astounding talent for slide guitar in 2017 he joined forces with Northern Rivers powerhouse vocalist Michelle Fitness nee Crozier and they formed TWO TEARS IN A BUCKET. Since then they have toured extensively along the eastern seaboard and inland areas of Victoria and NSW.
- Performing mainly as a duo, they have also added a rhythm section which currently consists of Beck Flatt (Zee Starr Trinity, Mason Rack Band, West Texas Crude) on drums and percussion and Simon Dundon (Bourbon Street) on Bass and Backing Vocals

Nathan Petersen is a journeyman songwriter. His street kid punk roots blend with his respect and understanding of traditional blues and roots. An astounding talent for slide guitar, Nathan sings and writes about what he knows best, surviving on the edge and having a damn fine time doing it.

Michelle Fitness nee Crozier sings straight from her soul, from gutsy to fragile, Michelle can conjure the full range of human emotion with a mighty vocal talent, a steady rhythm guitar and a relentless stomp box. Well known in Central Victoria, Gippsland and the Northern Rivers Region, Michelle has been delighting audiences in a wide array of genres (Jazz, Folk, Fusion, Blues and Heavy Rock) for many years.

WHEN WE PERFORM AS A BAND WE GET TO PLAY WITH THESE TWO LEGENDS

Beck Flatt is a much sought after powerhouse drummer. She has travelled the world with her drumkit playing with the likes of ..Mason Rack, Zstar Trinity and Blues Arcadia. We nicked her and we are not giving her back (actually we fed her a sandwich one day and she refuses to leave)

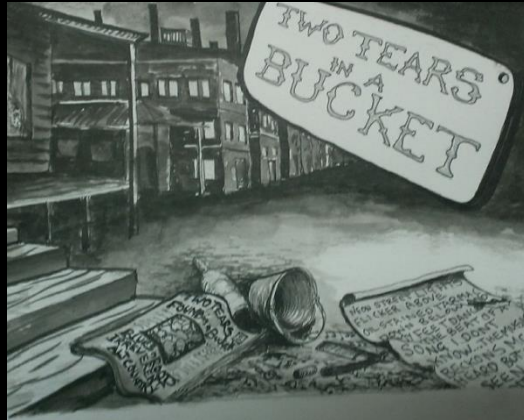

Simon Dundon is one of the most groove based rock Bassists you will hear in the industry. Well known for his role as the Bourbon Street Bass player. We knicked him and we are not giving him back. An accomplished song writer, producer and musician.
