Specs

Nathan will be playing a steel guitar resonator, a wooden resonator, an electric guitar, a banjo, a ukulele and a lap slide. All instruments have pickups. The Banjo and the Steel Resonator can cause feedback if placed through his foldback.

Nathan's amp is a Fender Deville

Michelle will be playing an electric guitar and a Banjo, possibly an acoustic bass if it is ok to go direct through the PA. She will also be playing a Wild Dog Stomp box and a Peterman Tish Puck

Michelle's amp is a Roland Cube going through a Seymour Duncan Twin Tube Pedal

Both sit down on drum stools that they provide themselves while performing in the duo.
